First Sunday of May

Movie: Akira

One of the most influential examples of anime, Akira is based on the epic 2146 page manga by Katsuhiro Otomo. The story is set in the post-apocalyptic community of Neo-Tokyo. Tetsuo is a fiercely individualistic member of a scroungy motorcycle gang. The despotic authorities, the robot-like police, and even the cycle gang pursue Tetsuo when he's bombarded with a new, insidious energy source that has rendered him telekinetic. Budgeted at eight million dollars, and completely hand drawn this anime helped start the craze that thrives today.

Initial release: January 1, 1988 (USA)

Director: Katsuhiro Otomo

Second Sunday of May - 5/11

Movie: Ninja Scroll

Ninja Scroll is a 1993 Japanese animated action thriller film written and directed by Yoshiaki Kawajiri. The critically acclaimed film is still one of the most brutal and beautiful Animes even by today's standards.

Initial release: December 6, 1996 (USA)

Director: Yoshiaki Kawajiri

Third Sunday of May - 5/18

Movie: Princess Mononoke

Directed by renowned animator Hayao Miyazaki, the man behind over 24 of the greatest animes of all time. This film has broken almost all box office records in its native Japan. Essentially a statement on the ecological devastation brought on by human advancement, the story follows the battle between Princess Mononoke and a mining village.

Initial release: July 12, 1997

Director: Hayao Miyazaki

Fourth Sunday of May - 5/25

Movie: Ghost In The Shell

Ghost in the Shell is a 1995 anime science fiction film based on manga of the same title by Masamune Shirow. Many films have tried copying its style and owe it serious credit. aka The Matrix.

Initial release: March 29, 1996 (USA)

Director: Mamoru Oshii
